Thank you for the information, Kimi. I would love to sit in on this meeting and will hopefully have some time to look over the documents tomorrow.

Hi Kelsey,

So good to hear from you, welcome!! Great that you're interested in EJ work. The DB EJ analysis is very

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I will give more thought to any discreet legal issues, but in the meantime would be happy to share the underlying documents with you and invite you to our meeting next week with Corbin (the Region's EJ lead in the RA's office) and Valois (the DB UIC staff lead) to discuss the RTC and revisions to our analysis.

Here is the draft EJ Analysis that we put out for comment:

Attached are the table of EJ comments received and our current draft of a response to comments. Our next meeting is Tuesday at noon. If you have a chance to review the documents beforehand and would like to talk, just let me know. I'm off until Monday.

Thanks and look forward to working with you!
Kimi

Hi Kimi,

I was just on the call about Dewey Burdock and was reminded that I wanted to email you about possible EJ opportunities this summer. I am very interested in EJ issues and the law that currently functions with them so if you ever have a project an intern could help with, or even would not mind inviting me into any meetings where an intern would be allowed I would really appreciate the opportunity to work with you.

Thank you,
